General Rules and Guidelines:

- The Judge's Decision is Final. Any protest, question or comment regarding the conduct of a class must be directed to the show management. Under no circumstances is the judge to be approached. Judges may excuse unruly horses from the show pen.
- Show Management reserves the right to split, combine, cancel or change the location of any class.
- Show Management reserves the right to excuse unruly or dangerous horses. No stallions in youth classes.
- Current Vaccinations are required for your horse to be admitted onto the fairgrounds:
 - Negative Coggins for 2025 or 2026 for NYS horses and 2026 for out of state horses
 - Current 2026 Rabies Vaccination certificate
 - You are required to present your coggins and rabies to the office for verification.
 - Out of State horses must have their 30 day health papers presented for inspection.
- No overnight tying to trailers. Overnight horses must be stalled.
- Campers/living quarters are not to be powered by generators. Campers/ living quarter trailers parked in the camping area will be charged a camping fee.

- One back number per horse/rider combination for all show weekends (Your number is how your points are tracked. If your number changes during the show series, your points may not be tracked correctly). If you have a preferred number, please ask the office staff if it is available for the show series.
- Ties will be broken by the horse/rider combination receiving the highest placing in the largest class in that division for the day.
- There must be 3 horses shown in 3 classes within a division for a day High Point Award to be given.
- Pre-entries will not be held accountable for fees if you are unable to attend the show.
- Pre-paid stall fees will be refunded if the show is re-scheduled due to weather or if the exhibitor/horse are ill/injured and provide documentation to show management.

Per NYS Vehicle and Traffic Law 1265: No person less than 18 years of age shall ride a horse unless such person is wearing a helmet meeting or exceeding ASTM F1163 (Safety Equipment Institute Certified) Equestrian Standard. This will be enforced and show management will ask the rider to dismount and get a helmet. If you are in the show pen (during a class), you will be asked to leave and forfeit any placing.

Horses and Equipment:

- Horses 6 years or older must be shown on a bit.
- Horses 5 years and younger may be shown in either a shanked bit (western), bosal or snaffle bit.
- Proper Attire or Tack is required for Classes
 - English Attire: Hunt cap/ Helmet, Breeches, Shirt, Jacket, & Boots
 - Proper Tack includes: Hunt Seat Saddle, English Bridle and English Reins
 - Western Attire: Collared long sleeve shirt, Jeans/ Dress Pants, Boots, and Western Hat/ Helmet
 - Proper Tack includes: Western saddle, Western Bridle, and Split reins/ Romal Reins

Showmanship & Halter Classes:

- English Showmanship/ Halter proper attire: breeches, hunt coat, helmet/hunt cap, and field boots or Paddock boots with garter straps (for youth exhibitors)
- Western Showmanship/ Halter proper attire, please see AQHA guidelines
- Exhibitors should enter the divisional in hand class that they are competing in for riding classes. For example, horse and rider are Open Walk Jog Western and enter into Open Walk Jog In Hand Classes.

Open Ranch Division: (Separate division from Open Western)

- Will be judged using AQHA Guidelines.
- No horse entered into Ranch Open Division may cross enter into the Open, Youth or Sweepstakes Western Pleasure Classes.
- W/T Ranch division is intended for inexperienced horses or riders not capable of showing at the lope or canter in a group setting.

Leadline

- May not enter into any other division
- This division is meant to be for young rider's that cannot steer a horse independently.
- Exhibitors should be under the age of 6
- Handlers for leadline can be under the age of 18, but would need to be an exhibitor in the youth. A handler over the age of 18 is suggested for safety reasons.

Walk n Halt:

- May not enter into any other division.
- This division is meant to increase independence among a rider that is not ready for the Walk-Jog division.
- Exhibitors should be under the age of 8
- An adult (over 18 years old) must accompany the participant into the show pen.

Walk Jog/Trot Divisions: Rider may not cross enter into any other division

- This division is intended for inexperienced horses or riders not capable of showing at the lope or canter in a group setting.
- Youth is 13 and under.
- Open is for any age rider.
- Riders cannot cross enter into classes requiring a lope/canter.
- If an experienced rider wants to ride horses in both walk/trot and open, they can ride for exhibition only in the walk jog/trot classes. Their entry into the class needs to be paid and entered at the show office prior to entering the show pen. Refrain from excessive schooling, as you are entering a class meant for the above reasons.
- TRAINERS may ride in Open Walk Trot/ Jog classes as EXHIBITION ONLY (number must be flipped and class must be entered in the show office prior to entering the show pen.)

Discipline Rail: a class that judges the horse's performance and manners while executing maneuvers not seen in a regular pleasure class.

Unlike Command Classes- horses are not eliminated for failure to perform a required maneuver.

- Walk Jog/Trot Class MAY include turn on the haunches or forehand, sidepass, stop and stand, back on the rail, dropping of stirrups, extension of the gaits.

- Walk Jog/Trot Canter/Lope Class MAY include counter canter/lope, extension of gaits, side pass, turn on the haunches/forehand, lead changes (flying or simple), dropping of stirrups, etc.

Halter- Assisted Equestrians:

- If an Amateur Equestrian needs assistance to participate in halter, please notify Show Management.
- Another Amateur (Adult over 18 that does not have trainer status) can trot your horse and then hand off the horse to you for your set up and inspection. Please avoid Amateurs participating in the same class.

Jackpot Classes:

- Walk-Jog Jackpot classes are open to any age/ level of rider.
- Blind Pattern Jackpot Classes- Patterns will be released upon entering the pen for the class via paper copy, unless show management determines differently.

Year End All Around High Point Championship Awards

- Horse and Rider combo must show in 3 out of 4 shows to qualify for year end championship awards.
- Series and Division Awards are pointed based on Horse and Rider combination (which is based on your number)
- The same number must be used for the entire series for the horse and rider combination
- There must be 3 horses shown in 3 classes within a division for a weekend High Point Award to be given.
